

"TIME TO FILL UP" SAID PAYNE TO MARK HANNA

When They Received the News That Pettigrew Was Defeated—Jolly Crowd at Headquarters.

GRATIFIED AT THE RESULTS.

First Figures That McKinley Is Sure of 284 Electoral Votes Still Maintained by Committee.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—At 11 o'clock Vice Chairman Payne, of the Republican national committee, issued the following statement:

"McKinley has surely carried all the states claimed by me, excepting possibly, Kentucky, and returns indicate that we have beaten Bryan in Nebraska."

There was high good humor at the Republican headquarters all through the early part of the night—and as the returns kept on in a way that added to the good feeling, the crowd that thronged the headquarters rent the air with applause and cheers.

At 6:30 Mr. Payne announced that the Republicans had won New York by 19,000. Perry Heath came in at 7 o'clock from Indianapolis with the positive assurance that Indiana would certainly go for McKinley "by at least 15,000." Later, arrivals at headquarters were Richard C. Kerens, of Missouri, and Charles G. Dawes, the comptroller of the currency.

First News From Buffalo.

The first complete returns were from the city of Buffalo, which gave McKinley a plurality of 2,800, something less than was anticipated. A message was received by Payne reading as follows:

"All New England, Maryland and West Virginia are in the Republican column."

The hilarity rose high when a messenger came saying that Sioux Falls, S. D., the home of Senator Pettigrew, had given McKinley a plurality of 45. There was loud laughter, mingled with cries of "Good-bye, Pettigrew," and Mr. Payne wired to Chairman Hanna.

"It's time to fill up."

A dispatch following close upon that from Sioux Falls, declaring that Congressman John J. Lents had been beaten in Ohio, received even a more boisterous welcome.

Dispatches from Bloomington stating that Stevenson's precinct had been carried by McKinley by 208 to 112 was received with great cheering, which was redoubled later on by the announcement that Bryan's precinct had been carried by McKinley by 208 to 105.

Ironical Applause for Stone.

Word was received that Vice Chairman Stone, of the Democratic committee, refused to acknowledge the election of McKinley, saying that the early returns were always in favor of the Republicans, and there was much ironical applause for Chairman Stone.

News was slow from Indiana, and finally a telegram was sent to National Committeeman New, at Indianapolis, asking for particulars. The reply came as follows:

"I am not going off half-cocked, but we have certainly carried Indiana by an increased majority over 1936."

Notwithstanding the fact that the telegrams poured into the office in a perfect stream, there was, from the first, not more than one or two that contained statements calculated to lower the hopes of the Republican party, and they were unimportant. All the rest were of a joyous character, and coming as they did from the parts of the country, they seemed to the partisans gathered around Mr. Payne's desk to foreshadow a sweeping victory for their party.

WOMEN CAPTURE

A Political Meeting—Wives and Sweethearts Take a Hand in Politics and Win.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Weehawken's women champions of public school questions who live in the Highwood Park section, the most exclusive residential section of Hudson county, have now entered national politics. By a well considered plot they swooped down upon their husbands and sweethearts Saturday night, took them by the throat and gained a grand victory over the sterner sex in the presence of a large crowd assembled for the purpose of holding a public reception and rally.

Many men have been called to account by their wives for being out every night at the Hamilton Republican club, composed of prominent citizens in the Highwood and Clifton Park sections. Night after night has been spent on McKinley rallies and the wives at last became tired of having their husbands out so often and so late.

The first step, taken Thursday evening resulted in the secret meeting Saturday afternoon which terminated in the victory of Saturday night.

Henry Graut and Charles McKowan, two of the most prominent workers, went home late Thursday night. Mr. Graut found his night latch key was missing and rang the bell, but could get no response. Mr. McKowan meanwhile discovered that his wife was not at home, and he much puzzled, offered Mr. Graut shelter. It was learned next day that Mrs. Graut had taken her husband's key and that Mrs. McKowan had spent the night in Mrs. Graut's house, both having been in the plot.

One woman of keen wit planned a still better joke on Saturday night, and there was mystery in every Republican house in Highwood park at the evening meal that night. With unplanned unanimity the husbands all promised to be home early and departed for the last public demonstration of the campaign.

Just as the chairman of the Hamilton club was about to call the meeting to order there was a commotion at the door, and headed by Mrs. Gilmore Kenny, wife of a member of the board of education, who carried a large flag, there marched into the hall a score or more of the most exclusive of Weehawken's society women. Straight for the stage they went, and there was consternation depicted on the face of nearly every man present, who knew not what was coming.

"We wish to take part in this meeting, and propose that seats on the stage be given to us," said Mrs. Kenny. There was an unanimous chorus of approval from the crowd and on motion of some one the women were seated on the platform, while the men who had been chosen for the honorary functions were relegated to the body of the hall.

At the close of the meeting each feminine vice president took the arm of her respective husband or sweetheart and left the hall, amid the cheers of the crowd.

"I DON'T THINK"

Said Mr. Stone, of "Mizzoury," When Asked About the Result—Night Scenes Among the Democrats.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The headquarters in the east room of the Democratic national committee, were filled with long distances telephone and telegraph instruments to-night. A special telephone connected with the Democratic state committee in the St. James building, a block away, where John A. Mason, secretary of the state committee and several clerks received returns from up and down the state from executive chairman James J. McGuire, in Syracuse, C. C. Hughes, of the anti-imperialist league, ex-governor Stone, vice chairman of the Democratic national committee and others were present.

Governor Stone issued with much gusto a dispatch from Augusta, Maine, giving a Democratic gain of 50 per cent. He also read a Connecticut dispatch saying Republicans were getting the Republican candidate for governor. Later Governor Stone appeared to be discouraged, but said: "We have not got all the returns in yet and you cannot tell by early returns."

"I don't think I got a number of dispatches which he frowned at and folded up and put in his desk."

Norman E. Mack telegraphed from Buffalo that city would give McKinley 3,000, as against 12,000 in 1896. As the return began to show an increase in the return, Governor Stone was much elated, but this was dampened by a Chicago dispatch indicating over 4,000 majority for McKinley. When bulletin after bulletin showing Republican gains began to come in, ex-governor Stone left the room. As he was going out some one asked:

"What do you think of it?"

"This is no time for thinking," was the answer, "I don't think."

TEDDY NOT WORRIED

About the Result—Sent a Telegram Congratulating President McKinley and the Nation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Governor Roosevelt surrounded by his family to-night received the returns at his home on Sagamore Hill. The governor at no time during the evening seemed anxious about the result. He did not make any special arrangements to receive the news, and depended on the messages to be brought from the telegraph office in the railroad station, nearly three miles away.

The first definite information of the Republican victory was conveyed to the governor at about 10 o'clock. When he appeared at the door to meet a newspaper correspondent he was clad in full evening dress. He invited the visitor into the parlor and closely scrutinized the returns, and briefly commented on the result. After reading the message he said:

"Isn't that fine. It shows what the American people are. It shows that they want the good times to continue, are in favor of honest money and are for the flag."

The governor at once dictated the following dispatch to President McKinley: To President William McKinley, Canton, Ohio:

I congratulate you, and far more the nation. You have my heartfelt gratitude over the result.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Governor Roosevelt also sent messages of congratulations to Senator Mark Hanna and Chairman Odell, governor-elect.

IN ARMS OF SOMNOS

Was the Fallen Champion When Bad News Began to Pour In.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 6.—At 8 o'clock when the newspapermen congregated at Mr. Bryan's house, sought to secure a statement from him, they were told that he had just gone to sleep and could not be disturbed. When he retired to his own room, he glanced over the returns with apparent interest and then expressing a desire to make up some of the rest he had lost in the past few weeks, lay down and was asleep in less than five minutes. He slept an hour in the afternoon, after which he went for a horse-backride to his farm. He did not, however, feel fully recuperated, and, therefore, sought additional rest, thus manifesting probably less concern than hundreds of thousands of his followers.

JONES' SWEETHEART

Does Not Forsake Him in His Bitter Moments.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Charles F. Jones, valet of the dead millionaire, William Rice, for the possession of whose fortune he is accused of plotting with Lawyer Patrick, was to have been married to Miss Mabel Whitney, of Astoria, I. L. Miss Whitney is the mysterious young woman who called at the Bellevue hospital last Sunday to see Jones, who is recovering there from a self-inflicted wound in the throat. The young woman is quoted as saying that she was engaged to marry Jones, and that she still loves him, because she believed him to be the most unfortunate man in the world.

Two Texans, said to be Jones' father and mother, called at the Bellevue hospital yesterday afternoon to see the prisoner. He will be well enough to be returned to the Tombs in a short time.

Lawyer Patrick still declares that Jones is insane.

Will Demand His Seat.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—An election was held to-day in the so-called district of Lake Michigan, a portion of the lake front claimed by Capt. George W. Streeter, over which there has been much contention with the city authorities. Streeter was elected district representative by his followers and declares that on March 4 he will go before the committee on privileges and elections of the national house of representatives and that he will endeavor to be seated as the legitimate representative of the "District" in Congress.

Blocked Their Scheme.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 6.—The Republicans blocked the scheme of the Mingo Junction Bryanites to-day and prevented the voting of a number of structural iron workers who have been there but a short time. Prosecutions of those who voted illegally will follow. Challenging was the order of the day, it being the most troublesome election the town ever had.

President Walked to the Polls.

CANTON, O., Nov. 6.—President McKinley cast his ballot at 9:30 this morning. He was accompanied to the polls by Judge Day, Dr. Rixey, Postmaster Freese and Charles R. Miller, of Canton, and Secretary Cortelyou. The President greeted the knots of people gathered in front of the house, and accompanied his hearty handshake with a pleasant personal greeting.

Manley's Unique Telegram.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, CANTON, Ohio, Nov. 6.—The President's first congratulations from headquarters came from J. H. Manley, at New York, as follows:

"Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Your triumphant re-election is caused by Democratic managers. I tender my earnest congratulations. We are very happy at headquarters."

President Made No Comment.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, CANTON, Ohio, Nov. 6.—The President in person read aloud some of the returns, but refrained from making any comments whatever on the result.

Day's Claim 284 Votes.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, CANTON, Ohio, Nov. 6.—Judge Day, who is with the President, says McKinley carries twenty-seven states, with 284 electoral votes.

KILLED HIS WIFE

By the Accidental Discharge of a Revolver—Accident Happened in the Parlor.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—By the accidental discharge of a revolver last night, Clarence Buckley Beardsley, a man of wealth and well known in the city's business circles, shot and killed his wife, Madge Bowker Beardsley. The accident occurred in the family apartment of the McIntosh, 379 Superior street. The victim fell to the floor with a scream and was picked up by her husband to die in his arms.

In handling the revolver from which the bullet made the fatal wound, Mr. Beardsley was endeavoring to instruct her how to fire when a burglar who might try about the house during his absence on a business trip, which he was on the point of making to the Pacific slope. He had removed the cartridges and showed her how to hold the weapon, had replaced the bullets and had laid the weapon on a table. In some way it was pushed off, and in spite of the fact that it was of the hammerless pattern, it exploded. Within ten minutes the woman was dead. It was found later that a bullet had lodged just above the heart.

Mrs. Beardsley had arranged to go to the residence of her father, Hugh D. Bowker, in Edgewater, during her husband's absence. The recent reign of housebreaking among the north shore suburbs had frightened the wife, and she had insisted that a revolver should be kept in the readiness to meet any possible intruder at the Edgewater home.

The shooting occurred shortly after 9 o'clock. Husband and wife were seated in the parlor when he announced that he had headed her request in regard to a pistol. Then he took up the weapon and started to give her lessons in its use, which ended in the tragedy.

Beardsley is a member of the Union League club, the Washington Park club, and the Chicago Athletic Association.

POLITICAL RIOT

Caused the Death of One Man and a Number of Others Were Seriously Wounded.

BRAZIL, Ind., Nov. 6.—In a riot at Cassville, early to-day, one man was killed. Eight men were severely injured. Politics led to the fight.

The dead: Wallace Graves, of Caseyville. Wounded: William Hustin, seven Austrians and Italians, names unknown.

About fifty men became involved in a political discussion in a saloon during the night. The Democrats and Republicans finally separated, only to come together again outside the saloon. Some shot Graves with a shot gun. In an instant many weapons were brought into action. Over 200 shots were fired. The buildings in the vicinity stopped most of them. Local officers quickly swore in a number of deputies, and seeing an organized force entering the field, the rioters fled. It is thought the leaders will be apprehended, but feeling still runs high, and if the combatants can again get together, more bloodshed is not unlikely.

RUSSIAN REPLY

To the Anglo-German Agreement Appears to be Satisfactory to the Nations Concerned.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 6.—The text of the Russian reply to the Anglo-German agreement is published.

The first point, providing for open ports on the rivers of the Chinese littoral is favorably received, as it does not alter existing treaties.

The second point is all the more in harmony with Russia's intentions, as the integrity of the celestial empire is the fundamental principle of Russian policy.

As regards the possibility of a violation of this principle, in the third article, Russia refers to her note of May 23 and repeats her declaration that such violation would compel Russia to modify, as circumstances might require, the attitude she has taken.

Miner Crushed.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 6.—John Siersky, a Hungarian miner, employed by W. J. Rainey at the Moyer mine, was caught under a fall of slate yesterday and badly crushed. His left leg was broken in two places. He was brought to the hospital here.

Fell Forty Feet.

SHARON, Pa., Nov. 6.—G. W. Hartman, of Shenango township, fell forty-five feet from a chestnut tree yesterday, fractured his skull, broke an arm and sustained internal injuries. He will probably die.

Dynamited a Safe.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Nov. 6.—At Jacktown, Greene county, crooks, supposed to be from Wheeling, entered the store of A. J. Goodwin, Sunday night, dynamited the safe and got away with about $250. They took a surrey and two horses and escaped.

Killed in a Political Quarrel.

JONESBORO, Ill., Nov. 6.—In a quarrel over politics at Lick Creek last night, John Kirby, Democrat, was shot and instantly killed. Jack Thornton, a Republican, has been arrested.

Sweetheart of Napoleon Dead.

PARIS, Nov. 6.—Jeanne Beupre, who was a reigning beauty during the second empire, and who was one of the sweethearts of Napoleon, is dead.

GOOD RESULTS

From a Honeymoon Tour—New Missionary Society Formed as Outcome of Tjader's Observations.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—As the outcome of a honeymoon tour around the world made by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tjader, of No. 1 East Eighty-sixth street, shortly after their marriage last autumn, a new missionary society has been formed. The first public meeting of this association, which is called the International Union Mission, was held Sunday afternoon at the Church of the Strangers, Fifty-seventh street and Eighth avenue.

Miss Margaret Brinkerhoff Thorne was married to Mr. Tjader, on September 13, 1899, in Millbrook, N. J., where she was prominent in society. Her father is Samuel Thorne, of No. 3 East Fifty-fifth street, a member of many clubs in this city and a prominent banker and financier. He is president of the Pennsylvania Coal Co. and a director of the Bank of America, the Central Trust Co., and of several other large corporations in New York.

During their tour Mr. and Mrs. Tjader visited many little traveled districts. They were impressed with, without exception, the need of the Christian teaching, notwithstanding the fact that the majority of the world's population are Christians.

On Washington's birthday of this year, while in India, in the Himalaya mountains, they decided to devote their lives to the furtherance of the gospel in darkened lands.

They immediately began their work. Next day they were asked to help two native evangelists who had taken the Bible names of Isaac and Rebecca or conversion. The couple were in great need, because the first missionaries of the new society.

On their return to this country Mr. and Mrs. Tjader took steps for the formation of an independent interdenominational society, of which the meeting Sunday was the outcome.

In his address Mr. Tjader said that the International Union Mission would recognize no sect, but would embrace members of all leading denominations, who would at the same time, remain and work in their own churches. No salaries will be paid to the officials, and every cent received will be forwarded to the missionary field without any lessening of expenses.

Mr. Tjader has been elected president and Mrs. Tjader secretary. George E. Bemis, of No. 12 Astor place, will be treasurer. The Rev. D. Ana Blackburn, pastor of the Church of the Strangers, is the vice president. He has given the use of his church to the society.

Mr. Tjader is a native of Sweden. He was formerly pastor of a church in Stockholm. He was also at one time associated with Dwight L. Moody, in evangelistic work in this country.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 6.—The inter-state commerce commission has fixed hearings in cases involving violations of the inter-state commerce law as follows:

The Business Men's League of St. Louis against the Santa Fe and other railroads at Washington, December 10; Palmers Dock Hay and Produce board of Trade against the Pennsylvania and other roads, at New York City, December 14; M. J. Flory against the Central railroad, of New Jersey, New York, November 14; the proprietary association of America, against the New York Central, at New York City, November 19; Proctor & Gamble Company, against Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad, Washington, November 26; Kinsco Coal Company against the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad Company, Washington, December 1; five cases, with readiness by the people of Benndorf, Chicago, November 19; Charles H. Johnson, of Norfolk, Neb., against the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, Chicago, November 20.

The most important of these is that of the St. Louis Business League, which complains to the commission that the carload and less than car-load rates from St. Louis to the Pacific coast are relatively unjust and bear unduly on the shipper of less than car-loads.
